In the matter of the petition of Georgiana M. Nathan and J. A. Scott, both of England, in their quality as the executors and trustees under the last will and testament of Alexander McDowell Nathan, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that the abovementioned petition dated the 11th day of August, 1910, has been presented to His Honour Maurice Julian Berkeley, acting Chief Justice of British Guiana, by the abovenamed Georgiana M. Nathan and J. A. Scott, praying that a new grosse should be given off of a certain Mortgage dated the 20th day of April, 1904 executed by Thomas Wardle, to and in favour of Alexander McDowell Nathan and vested with right of First Mortgage on the right of the said Thomas Wardle to occupy and otherwise enjoy and use Plantations Rising Sun, Washington, Hope and Golden Fleece, situate on the west coast of the county of Berbice, aforesaid, in terms of a certain agreement of lease made between James Jameson, as lessor, and the said Thomas Wardle, as lessee, dated 17th December, 1900, and deposited in the Registrar's Office of British Guiana on the 23rd day of February, 1904, on all the buildings, erections, machinery, cultivation and further appurtenances on and belonging to the said plantations and each of them; on all the live and dead stock now being on the said plantations and each of them and the progeny of the said live stock; on the rice and other products which may from time to time be reaped on the said plantations and each of them; on all the household and other furniture, ware and effects now in the principal dwelling house, all the property of the said Thomas Wardle; on all other buildings, erections, machinery, appurtenances, live and dead stock, furniture, ware and effects, which may hereafter be brought in or taken on the said plantations or either of them either in addition to or in substitution for those at present existing and being on the said plantations and each of them and on all the rents due or to become due and the produce received or to be received by the said Thomas Wardle in respect of the sub-letting of portions of the said plantations and each of them by the said Thomas Wardle.

The grounds of the said application being that the said petitioners as the executors and trustees under the last will and testament of the said Alexander McDowell Nathan are the legal holders of the said Mortgage, that the Mortgage debt is still unpaid and that the grosse of the said Mortgage has been lost and is not now in the possession of the petitioners.

Any person who desires to oppose the granting of the said application is hereby required to file at this Office his reasons of opposition thereto on or before the 3rd day of December, 1910, after which date if no opposition shall have been entered application will be made for a final order on the said petition granting and allowing the prayer thereof.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
GEORGETOWN, DEMERARA,
3rd October, 1910.

158.

THE following Telegrams which have been received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies with regard to the Mail Service between Great Britain, the West Indian Colonies and British Guiana, are hereby published for general information.

By Command,

J. HAMPDEN KING,
Acting Government Secretary.

1ST OCTOBER.

With reference to my despatch of the 24th May, agreement with regard to Transatlantic Mail Service terminates on the 10th November, and His Majesty's Government will have no control over that service after that date. The Royal Mail Steam Packet Company inform me that on and after the 23rd November their transatlantic steamers will proceed direct from Europe to St. Thomas, and thence to Colombian Ports, Colon, Jamaica and New York. The Service will be fortnightly up to the 21st December: departures after that date being under consideration. Homeward connection to be made at Barbados 13th December and 27th December.

The Company ask permission to connect Intercolonial steamers with Main line at St. Thomas proceeding thence to Northern Islands, Barbados, Grenada, Trinidad and Demerara. Directors state that the present service is carried on at a heavy loss, and in the absence of a subsidy the alternative is withdrawal of service. His Majesty's Government are not prepared to ask Parliament for further subsidy.

In my opinion and that of the General Post Office the present proposal affords the best practicable expedient for the maintenance of regular communication with the United Kingdom pending consideration of permanent arrangements. I see no advantage in objecting to the re-arrangement of the Intercolonial Service—the utility of which depends on connection with a transatlantic service, and in view of the 3rd clause of the contract the Company cannot be compelled to connect with any but transatlantic packets maintained by the General Post Office.

-I greatly regret the selection of the foreign terminal port and the consequent increase in the length of voyage to the Southern Colonies, but see no alternative but to consent, subject to possible slight modifications to proposal, as a provisional arrangement—provided a fortnightly service be maintained; and I trust that the Legislature will agree to continue the payment of the subsidy on those terms pending consideration of the report of the Royal Commissioners.

Consult the Legislature and report by telegraph as soon as possible. Despatch and pro forma Time-Table went by the mail of the 27th September.

FURTHER TELEGRAM—1ST OCTOBER.

At the end of my telegram of the 1st October which you will receive via Grenada add as follows :—

Time-tables submitted show arrival and departure of Mail on same day twice during the period of transition. Shall endeavour to remedy this as far as possible. After that period it may be necessary to choose between relative advantages of long stay and quick transit.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 27TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1910.

versus

CHRISTIANI.

This is an appeal from the Stipendiary Magistrate of the South Essequibo Judicial District, who convicted the appellant that he did on or about the 29th day of January, 1910, barter one quart or thereabouts of rum contrary to section 13 (1) of Ordinance No. 8 of 1868.

The reasons of appeal are:—

1. The admission of illegal evidence.
2. That the decision is unwarranted by the evidence.
3. That it is erroneous in point of law.
4. That specific illegalities substantially affecting the merits of the case were committed in the course of the proceedings.

Reason 1. The statements of certain witnesses obtained with a view of obtaining the fiat of the Attorney General are attached to the proceedings. They are not tendered as evidence and formed no part of the proceedings. There is nothing to warrant the suggestion that they were so treated. With regard to the permit and slip the contents of these were not deposed to but only the fact of their existence. Independent of these there was evidence which, if the Magistrate believed, would warrant him in finding that the appellant sent Stoby to Rutherford from whom he obtained rum.

Fenty says that he was not present when the goods were delivered but he states that he drunk rum and there are other facts deposed to by him from which a conclusion could be drawn as to where the spirit came from. These facts are clearly admissible.

Reasons 2 and 4 were argued together. The fact—if correct—that Stoby, Short, Fenty and others delivered gold to Walcott who gave them an order on Mapp in no way shows that any one of these men could not have exchanged other gold for provisions and rum. It is not incumbent on a Magistrate to record all that a witness says and it is distinctly recorded that Henry Holder and George Holder witnesses for the defence state that they saw the witnesses for the prosecution deliver gold to Walcott. There was therefore no illegality affecting the merits of the case committed.

With regard to reason 3 Stoby speaks of the defendant asking him what he wanted in reply to his request to sell him provisions. He then sent him to Rutherford who was in charge of defendant's boat from whom he received provisions and rum. Rutherford confirms this witness as to the delivery while other witnesses speak to Stoby giving 23 ozs. of gold to the defendant out of which Fenty says he told him to take out "for the provisions and rum." The mere fact that the witnesses may have informed against the defendant because he had reported them for a breach of the Mining Laws does not render their evidence unworthy of credit and the fact that defendant admits giving them provisions and Stoby a drink of rum supports the case for the prosecution. As the Magistrate did not believe the witnesses for the defence that no rum was bartered he could come to no other decision.

Appeal dismissed with costs.

DA SILVA

versus

DA SILVA.

This is an appeal from the Stipendiary Magistrate of the South Essequibo Judicial District who in an interpleader claim by the respondent upheld the same and declared the levy made to satisfy a judgment obtained on 5th April, 1910, bad, and awarded the respondent $10 as damages.

The respondent does not appear. The first reason of appeal is that the decision is unwarranted by the evidence inasmuch as it discloses that the transactions between Gouveia, the judgment debtor, and the respondent as to the alleged sale and purchase of the goods in question were highly fraudulent.

The evidence of the respondent is to the effect that Gouveia being indebted to him he took over the stock and fittings of his shop on 29th March, 1910, credited him with $30 being 5 years' rent in advance of certain land and after balancing accounts paid him 54c., balance found to be due. He further admits that at the time he was aware of Gouveia's indebtedness to the appellant. This with the evidence of other witnesses supports the contention of the appellant as to fraud and collusion on the part of respondent and Gouveia and renders it unnecessary to deal with the other reasons. Appeal is allowed and the decision of Magistrate reversed with costs.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 27TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1910.

JOHNNIE

versus

VON HERMANSTEIN.

The plaintiff seeks in this action to have advertisement of the transport of the defendant's share in and to the south half of the north half of the abandoned land called La Janette situate on the east side of Mahaica creek, Demerary, declared wrongful and illegal and defendant ordered to pass the same to him or in the alternative repay the sum of $241 paid by him on account of the purchase of said land; and $100 as damages.

It is admitted by counsel for the plaintiff that in the face of the order of this Court that this land be transported to Boodhansing it is only sought to enforce payment out of the proceeds of the sale to Boodhansing of the amount due to the plaintiff by defendant. This Court finds on the evidence that no money was paid by the plaintiff to the defendant on account of the purchase of this land but that it was so paid by Shivsanker in whose favour transport was advertised and that the name of the plaintiff was only used in the receipt because the defendant at that time was unwilling to sell to the said Shivsanker. Under these circumstances this action must be dismissed with costs. On the suggestion of the Court and in order to avoid further litigation, Mr. McArthur, counsel for the defendant who admits the indebtedness of defendant to Shivsanker, undertakes that the sum of $241 shall be paid by defendant to the said Shivsanker—on the passing of the transport to Boodhansing.

BRITISH GUIANA MILITIA,

His Excellency the Governor and Commander-in-Chief has been pleased to accept the following resignation in the British Guiana Militia:—

ARTILLERY.

Lieutenant I. H. Laing resigns his commission dated 11th October.

By Command,

H. S. WALKER, Captain, for Colonel.
Commandant, Local Forces.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 8TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1910.

FARRELL
versus

TOWN CLERK OF GEORGETOWN.

The plaintiff in this action claims, as being married in community of goods to his wife Martha Farrell, the sum of $300 as damages for injuries sustained by her due to the carelessness and negligence of the Mayor and Town Council of Georgetown and its servants.

The evidence for the plaintiff establishes that on Saturday, the 19th March, 1910, the plaintiff's wife while leaving the Stabreck Market, but still within the building with a basket of provisions on her head came into contact with two bars and fell heavily at her length on her left side. That these bars are on a Saturday night placed ready for use on the closing of the Market by the scavengers, the servants of the defendant although on the night in question there is no evidence as to the person or persons by whom they were so placed. That these bars were lying across the pathway open to the public. That as a consequence of this fall the said Martha Farrell received a trivial wound over the eye and some injury to her shoulder which up to the present time although much improved prevents the free use of the arm and according to medical evidence will always cause some trouble on account of her age (60).

Under section 207 of Ordinance No. 25 of 1898, the benefit and protection of the provisions of the Justices Protection Ordinance, 1850, is extended to the members of the Town Council, their officers and servants. This being so the first question for determination is whether the scavengers, who it is submitted by plaintiff's counsel, placed the bars in the position which caused the damage, were acting within the scope of their authority as such servants. Now, it was clearly their duty to have the bars in readiness for the purpose for which they were required, viz., the separation of that part of the market to which the public are not admitted on the Sunday morning from that to which the public have access. If, therefore, these bars can be held to have been placed by them it would seem to have been done in the execution of their duty. The claim, therefore, should have expressly alleged that the act was done maliciously and without reasonable and probable cause as required by section 2 of the Justices Protection Ordinance, 1850. It is argued by counsel for the plaintiff that although reference is made in the statement of claim as to the Justices Protection Ordinance extending to defendant yet the act done by their servants was in excess of their jurisdiction and that, therefore, section 2 does not apply. If it could be so held then, according to the decision of the Court in Rolstone v. Town Clerk (8. 6. 1888), the Mayor and Town Council are not liable as a corporation, that is no action would lie against the Mayor and Corporation for any act done not within their statutory powers whereby the funds of the Corporation would be affected. Only the individuals who did or participated in doing the wrong would be liable as individuals.

Judgment for defendant with costs,

M. J. BERKELEY, J.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,

17th October, 1910.

187.

HIS EXCELLENCY the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the following warning to Gold-Diggers and others with regard to working for gold on Venezuelan soil:—

WARNING TO GOLD-DIGGERS WITH REGARD TO WORKING ON VENEZUELAN SOIL.

1. Gold-diggers, Gold Explorers, and others are warned not to cross the frontier into Venezuela for the purpose of working for gold without having conformed to the Mining Laws and Regulations of that Country.

2. The laws of Venezuela do not, as a general rule, permit persons to work for gold without first having obtained a concession of the land in which the gold has been located. Concessions to work for alluvial gold are granted only of a limited extent, and concessionaires have to pay every month at the nearest Custom House 10 per cent. on the gross output as well as a Mining Tax.

3. Concessions are granted only to persons who are capable of acquiring property in Venezuela, and individual British subjects have to conform to certain Laws and Regulations before they are eligible to acquire property.

4. Gold-diggers and other British subjects once they have crossed the frontier into Venezuela place themselves while there within the Laws of that country, and if, without having conformed to the Mining Laws and Regulations of Venezuela, they dig or search for gold they commit an offence for which they are liable to be arrested and imprisoned.

5. All British subjects and others are hereby informed that if they cross the frontier and engage in any work which brings them into conflict with the Laws of Venezuela, they do so at their own peril, and are not to expect to receive the protection of this Government.

By His Excellency's Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the following Reports on the examination of Queen's College in July last, by the Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,

Government Secretary.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE, BRITISH GUIANA,

JULY, 1910.

To the Secretary of the Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

SIR,

I beg to present the following Report on the examination in French at Queen's College, British Guiana. I set a paper to each Form.

Form V. (8 boys). The grammar questions were answered well, and the translation of the unprepared passages, the verse especially, was very fair. The composition, with the exception of Sertima's copy, was rather weak. Duke did very well on the whole paper.

Upper IV. (15 boys). The Form did well as a whole. The grammar was known satisfactorily and the translation was very fair. The composition, both continuous prose and sentences, was carefully written. McDavid and Shannon did well and the average of marks was high.

Lower IV. (20 boys). There were excellent papers written by Morris, Bye and Stafford, and the work generally, except in composition, was good.

Form III. (19 boys). The translation and sentences were written satisfactorily, and the marks obtained were even and good. Marshall, Persico and Todd deserved mention.

Form II. (21 boys). The results were rather poor, as many of the boys seemed hardly able to answer any questions satisfactorily. There was considerable inaccuracy in knowledge of the verbs. The spelling was very faulty.

Form I. (19 boys). The work shewn up by about half the Form was very fair. Hutchinson, Khan and Lopes did well. The spelling was poor.

Generally speaking the work in the four upper Forms reached a good standard and was very even in merit. The two lower Forms did not do very well, probably from want of practice in writing examination papers.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

ALLEN H. POWLES, M.A.,

of Peterhouse, Cambridge.

JULY, 1910.

To the Secretary of the Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

SIR,

I beg leave to report to you as follows on the examination of Queen's College, British Guiana, in Classics.

LATIN.

Form VI.—Bruce-James' translation work was accurate and good in style, that sent in by Reece was careful but not so clever. Surrey was much below the other two. In unseen translation, grammar, &c., Bruce-James did excellent work all round, Reece was painstaking but his prose was rather laboured. Surrey's prose was clear and ingenious.

Form V.—Translation. All but one did well in this paper, but the average marks for the syntax were low. Duke and Van Sertima were very good all round. Unseen, &c., Duke and Van Sertima sent in excellent papers, two of the others were satisfactory, one was distinctly weak. As a whole this Class was well prepared.

Form IV Upper.—In the author paper the translation work was good, the subject-matter very good, the syntax moderate. The accidence answers were excellent, but the syntax was shaky in about half the Class. The compositions were very fair on the whole and in several cases good. McDavid deserves special mention for the excellence of his composition, grammar, and unseen translation.

Form IV Lower.—The translation was done very well by nearly the whole Class, the grammar was highly satisfactory on the whole, though the syntax was not strong. The sentences were done very well by several candidates.

Form III.—The accidence and translation had been thoroughly taught all round the Class. Very few did well in syntax and composition, but on the whole the work of the Class was very satisfactory.

Form II.—Except for the accidence work which was fair, only about half the Class did satisfactorily in this paper, the rest sent in some rather unintelligent attempts at translation and composition.

Form I.—The accidence was not thoroughly prepared by the majority of the Class, but the translation from Latin was good and that into Latin was very fair on the whole.

GREEK.

Form VI.—The translation was very well done by each of the three candidates: as a rule the construing was thorough and ingenious and the style satisfactory. Bruce-James' work was clever, but not careful enough. The unseens and composition were well done and the average marks for the whole of this paper were satisfactory. Reece was generally the most reliable. Surrey in both papers did sound work.

Form V.—The only candidate present showed much promise all round. His composition was idiomatic and good in style but not careful enough in detail.

Form IV.—The translation was good on the whole and so was the accidence, but the syntax was sometimes weak and the parsing was not full enough. The composition work was moderate.

Junior School.—This seemed to be a very promising Class: the work was done well all round.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

F. G. PLAISTOWE, M.A.,

late Fellow of Queen's College, Cambridge.

MATHEMATICAL EXAMINATION,

JULY, 1910.

To the Secretary of the Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

SIR,

I beg leave to report that I have examined the above School from Form VI to Form I in Algebra and Geometry and Forms V to I in Arithmetic. I also examined one boy in the VIth (who did not take Arithmetic) and one boy in the Vth in three papers in more advanced mathematics.

Advanced Mathematics—The three papers set were (i) Trigonometry, (ii) Mechanics, (iii) Geometrical and Analytical Conics. In the two former Bushe of the VIth did very well, obtaining 85 per cent. and 79 per cent. of full marks respectively, while Duke of the Vth obtained 57 per cent. and 47 per cent. respectively. In the third paper not such good work was sent up—neither obtaining quite half marks and Duke being a little better than Bushe.

Bushe also did very well in the Geometry and Algebra papers set to the VIth and Vth Forms obtaining 80 and 95 per cent. respectively.

Form V.—(7 boys.) The work in Geometry in this Form was the most uniform. No one did well, but no one did badly. Duke's was the best paper, with 56 per cent. The work in Arithmetic was more variable. Duke sent up a good paper, and one or two moderate papers were sent up. In Algebra the work was very variable, while Duke obtained 87 per cent., and Van Sertima sent up a very fair paper; the rest were only moderate or weak.

PERCENTAGES.

Arithmetic	44 per cent.
Geometry	42 „
Algebra	33 „

Form IV (Upper, 15 boys), (Lower, 20 boys.)—There was a good deal of difference between the work of the Upper and Lower Form IV. This was noticeable in all three subjects, but especially in the Geometry.

The Arithmetic of Upper IV was very good. With the exception of one weak paper, a steadily high standard was reached. The Geometry was very fair—no specially good papers, and one or two somewhat weak. The Algebra was on the whole quite good, and would have been very good except for the weakness of two boys' work.

PERCENTAGES.

Arithmetic	72 per cent.
Geometry	41 „
Algebra	58 „

The Lower IV whilst not doing so well in Arithmetic as the Upper IV, still sent up some very good work. Seven papers were sent up, which earned over three quarters of full marks. In Algebra, in spite of one or two very good papers, only a moderate average was obtained as there were several weak papers. But in Geometry for some reason, the paper proved too difficult for them, and with the exception of Stafford who obtained half mark, hardly anyone made any show at all.

PERCENTAGES.

Arithmetic	59 per cent.
Geometry	14 „
Algebra	43 „

Form III (20 boys).—This Form sent up only moderate work throughout. Their Arithmetic and Algebra were only fair, and their Geometry weak; a large number were quite ignorant of propositions well within their range which they certainly ought to have known.

PERCENTAGES.

Arithmetic	40 per cent.
Geometry	21 „
Algebra	37 „

Form II (21 boys).—Some very steady work in Arithmetic was sent up by this Form. They all seemed to know their earlier work, though only a few solved the later questions. In Algebra fair work was shown up—one or two good papers, and a few weak papers. In Geometry, however, quite poor work was sent up by the majority of the candidates, many of whom did not seem to know the most elementary facts of Geometry.

PERCENTAGES.

Arithmetic	58 per cent.
Geometry	20 „
Algebra	39 „

Form I (20 boys).—This Form did very well throughout in all three papers. The papers set to them were, of course, easy; but while there were a great many papers done quite well, there were hardly any weak ones. It presents a marked contrast to Forms II and III, in particular in the matter of Geometry.

PERCENTAGES.

Arithmetic	65 per cent.
Geometry	60 „
Algebra	61 „

Speaking generally, while the work in Arithmetic was good and steady, there is some weakness in Algebra that needs attention; and the Geometry decidedly needs strengthening throughout the school. The promise indicated by the work in Form I ought to extend upwards throughout.

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Fellow of Trinity Hall, Cambridge.

REPORT ON ENGLISH SUBJECTS, JULY, 1910.

To the Secretary of the Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

SIR,

I have the honour to present to you the following report of my recent examination in English subjects of the Queen's College, British Guiana.

Scripture.—Forms V, IV and Lower IV were examined in the Second Book of Kings and St. Mark's Gospel. In Form V the highest paper was awarded 96 per cent. of the total, and the lowest 61, the average being 73. These are remarkable figures, and the answers were worthy of them. The papers were written in excellent style, especially in the New Testament, and the details were generally correct. The results in Forms IV and Lower IV were equally satisfactory, the average marks being respectively 71 and 64 on the same paper as Form V, while two boys in the Upper and three in the Lower got 90 per cent. or more of the maximum. With one exception the boys of Form III gave satisfaction, and the best papers deserved higher praise than this, five being excellent and eight very good. In Form II two papers were excellent, four good, and all but three of the rest very fair. The work of Form I was promising.

English History.—Four boys in Form V presented work on a period extending from A.D. 1492 to 1784. Two papers were very good, the other two were very meagre. On the same paper one boy in Form IV handed in a creditable set of answers, but the other sets, after making all allowances, were very disappointing. In the Lower Fourth one boy got 89 and another 71 out of a possible 100, and omitting two bad failures, the work of the rest was decidedly commendable. Of the papers produced by Form III seven were good, and all the others except two satisfactory. One boy in Form II got 89 per cent. of full marks for an excellent set of answers, two others were good, the rest varied from fair to poor, three or four of the lowest doing little or nothing. Of the small boys in Form I one was very good, another was good, the rest, through lack of examination experience or of knowledge, were of not much account.

Geography.—A very fair acquaintance with the Geography of the British Isles and Asia was shown by Forms V, IV and Lower IV, and the subject seemed to have been taught in a scientific manner. The best paper was produced by a boy in Form Upper IV, which was however almost equalled by the best in Form V. The average marks of Form V were praiseworthy, of the other two Forms satisfactory. An excellent standard was reached and maintained in Form III by all but three boys. In Form II one boy was excellent, two good, and nearly all fair; in Form I four were excellent, three very good, eight good, and all but one of the others fair.

English Grammar and Composition.—The highest praise must be given to Form V for their papers on Grammar and Composition. Three boys got 90 per cent. or more of the total, and two others more than 80 per cent. The Grammatical questions were correctly dealt with, and the Essays were exceptionally good. High marks were the rule in Form IV also, and the Composition was highly meritorious. In this important subject the School seems to be of unusual excellence. Form IV deserve great credit for analysis and parsing, and the whole paper was well done. Six boys obtained 91 per cent. or more of the maximum, and only three less than 60 per cent. Form III also gave satisfaction on the same questions. With an easier paper Forms II and I acquitted themselves admirably, seven boys obtaining 90 per cent. or more, and several others more than 80 per cent. of the total.

English Literature.—Form V were examined in Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, and less in detail in Macbeth, Spencer's Faerie Queene, and Scott's Kenilworth. Two boys were excellent, one very good, one good, and the other two fair. All had evidently read the Twelfth Night closely and with good effect, and they seemed to have a full knowledge of the scenes and characters in Macbeth, and of the events in Kenilworth. Four boys also gave good accounts of the episodes asked for in the Faerie Queene. Form Upper IV gained great credit for their papers on The Twelfth Night, one boy attaining full marks, another 92 per cent., and three others more than 80, and the average of all being 66. Form Lower IV did well in the same paper, the highest boy reaching 93 per cent. and the average being 54. Form III were examined in the story of the Odyssey, and exhibited a creditable acquaintance with the narrative. The majority were able also to explain the allusions.

Summary.—In conclusion I have no hesitation in saying that the school has passed a good examination in all its subjects, excepting, perhaps, English History. In Form V the average marks are higher for all the papers except this than last year; for this paper it is slightly lower. In this subject the weakest Forms were the Upper IV and the First. Of the other subjects, Scripture, English Grammar and Literature were the best, and in Essay writing the school greatly distinguished itself.

To the Secretary of the Local Examinations and Lectures Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the following report on the Science work of Queen's College, British Guiana.

The work of the Upper Forms was good and shews that the boys have been taught on sound lines, and that the teaching has been thorough and inspiring.

I am sorry to say that the work of the two lowest Forms is not so satisfactory; there are always, however, a few boys who have done well, and though the average standard attained in Forms I and II is a poor one, it seems to be due rather to the incapacity of the boys than to any deficiencies in the teaching. Some of the boys appear to be handicapped by their unfamiliarity with the English language.

The general impression given was that the Science staff have an exceedingly difficult and, probably, discouraging task, which is being carried on with considerable success, as evidenced by the very fair standard achieved by the higher Forms, in which the teaching has had most time to take effect.

In accordance with the Resolution passed in Combined Court on the 13th October, the Secretary of State for the Colonies has been asked to arrange if possible for a modification of the time taken in transit to and from Demerara as shown in the Time-table under the head "New Service" so as to make the period outwards sixteen days instead of twenty-one days and the period homewards fifteen days instead of twenty days.

The question as to the Ocean service to be given after the steamer leaving Southampton on the 21st December has not yet been settled. In the event of the service decided upon by the Directors of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company being more unsatisfactory than that arranged in respect of the steamer leaving on that date the matter will at once receive the consideration of the Government.

GEORGETOWN, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22ND, 1910.

Government Notices.

GOVERNMENT SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Georgetown, Demerara,

199.

21st October, 1910.

THE following Bills, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, are hereby published for general information.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

THE CUSTOMS (VENEZUELAN BALATA AND RUBBER)
BILL, 1910.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM.

In 1907 balata from Venezuela was prohibited to be brought into the Colony (Ordinance 33 of 1907), because it was found that balata which had been illegally obtained from the Crown forests of the Colony was passed off as balata from Venezuela, and the Colony suffered loss both by the damage done to the Crown forests and loss of royalty on the balata, for Venezuelan balata paid no royalty.

At that time it was not known that there were any considerable number of rubber trees near the Venezuelan frontier, hence the prohibition was confined to balata. But it is now known that rubber exists in considerable quantities in the North Western District of the Colony, and in order to prevent loss to the Colony by its being illegally obtained and passed off as Venezuelan rubber, it is desirable to prohibit the importation of rubber from Venezuela as well as balata.

The Bill repeals Ordinance 33 of 1907 and re-enacts it with the addition of rubber and other substances of a like nature, so as to avoid having two Ordinances dealing with this subject.

A BILL ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE TO PROHIBIT THE IMPORTATION OF BALATA, RUBBER AND OTHER SUBSTANCES OF A LIKE NATURE FROM VENEZUELA INTO THIS COLONY."

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows :—

|--|--|
| Importation of balata and rubber from Venezuela prohibited. | 1. Balata, rubber and other substances of a like nature coming from Venezuela, whether grown or collected in Venezuela or not, are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought into this Colony, and such balata, rubber and other substances shall be deemed to be goods prohibited to be imported in the same manner as if the same were enumerated and described in the table of prohibitions and restrictions inwards contained in the First Schedule to the Customs Ordinance, 1884. |
| Repeal of Ord. 33 of 1907. | 2. The Customs (Balata Prohibition) Ordinance, 1907, is hereby repealed. |
| Short title and construction. No. 7 of 1884. | 3. This Ordinance may be cited as the Customs (Venezuelan Balata and Rubber) Ordinance, 1910, and shall be read as one with the Customs Ordinance, 1884. |

THE IMMIGRATION (EXEMPTION) BILL, 1910.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM.

The object of this Bill is to place East Indians born in the Colony (commonly called Creole East Indians) on the same footing as the rest of the King's subjects and to take them out of the operation of the Immigration laws. At present no East Indian can leave the Colony without obtaining a "passport" under section 195 of the Immigration Ordinance, 1891, and he is also under certain regulations as to marriage and property under Part X of that Ordinance, but on complying with the terms of the Bill he can receive a certificate which will enable him to leave the Colony at will and free him entirely from all the restrictions of the Immigration laws and place him with regard to marriage and all other civil rights under the ordinary laws of the Colony.

A BILL ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE IMMIGRATION ORDINANCE, 1891."

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows :—

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Immigration Ordinance, 1891, any immigrant born in this Colony may make a declaration in writing, signed by him in the presence of the Immigration Agent General, or any Immigration Agent, to the effect that he desires that the provisions of the said Ordinance shall no longer apply to him. Such declaration may be in the form in the First Schedule hereto : Provided that the person who makes such declaration shall be not under twenty-one years of age and is able to read and write.

LABOUR SUPPLY COMMISSION.

THIS Commission has been appointed to enquire whether or not the existing labour supply of the colony is insufficient for the development of the resources of the colony and for the maintenance of established industries and, if it be insufficient, to suggest in what way the supply can best be augmented. Evidence will not be required in regard to the labour supply of sugar estates, except as to the extent to which it has been affected by the establishment of other industries as the terms and conditions under which East Indian labour is obtained by the sugar estates and the incidence of cost thereof do not come within the scope of the Commission.

204.
HIS Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the following amended Convention between the Post Office Department of Surinam and the Post Office Department of British Guiana, concerning the exchange of Money Orders, to take the place of the Convention of the 4th and 14th November, 1903.

By Command,
CHARLES. T. COX,
Government Secretary.

AMENDED CONVENTION BETWEEN THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT OF SURINAM, AND THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT OF BRITISH GUIANA, CONCERNING THE EXCHANGE OF MONEY ORDERS, TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THE CONVENTION OF THE 4TH AND 14TH NOVEMBER, 1903.

For the purpose of amending the system of Exchange of Money orders between Surinam and the Colony of British Guiana, the undersigned, by virtue of authority vested in them, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

ARTICLE 1.

There shall be a regular Exchange of Money Orders between British Guiana and Surinam.

ARTICLE 2.

The Money Orders drawn in Surinam upon British Guiana shall be expressed in pounds, shillings and pence sterling, those drawn in British Guiana upon Surinam shall be expressed in florins and cents, and the amounts deposited by the Remitters and paid to the Payees of Money Orders shall be in legal money of the same current value.

ARTICLE 3.

The maximum of each Money Order shall be £40, or the nearest equivalent of that sum in the money of the Colony of issue, and no Money Order shall include a fractional part of a penny or of a cent. Every Money Order and Advice shall be drawn on authorized forms only.

ARTICLE 4.

The British Guiana Post Office and the Post Office of Surinam shall communicate to each other the rates of commission to be charged on all Money Orders they may respectively issue.

ARTICLE 5.

Each country shall keep the commission charged on all Money Orders issued within its own jurisdiction for payment in the other, and no charge will be made by either Administration for any services performed for the other in connection with the Exchange of Money Orders.

ARTICLE 6.

Money Orders shall be drawn only on authorized Money Order Offices of the respective countries, and each postal Administration shall furnish to the other a list of such offices, and from time to time notify any addition to or change in such lists.

ARTICLE 7.

Every Money Order and Advice shall contain the name of the office and of the country of destination, and if relating to a Money Order payable in British Guiana, the name of the district in which such office is situated.

ARTICLE 8.

Money Orders shall be issued only on the applicant furnishing the given name, surname and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and his own name and address, except in the case of business firms whose usual designation will be sufficient.

ARTICLE 9.

An acknowledgment of the payment of Money Orders shall be returned to the Remitter when requested, but either colony may require of the Remitter prepayment of a fee therefor not exceeding two-pence half penny or 12½ cents. This fee shall belong to the issuing colony.

ARTICLE 10.

As soon as possible after the expiration of each month, each Administration shall make out in duplicate and forward a certified list of all Money Orders issued by the other Administration which have been paid by its inland offices during that month.

(a.) These lists must exhibit in detail and in alphabetical order by districts, the names of the issuing offices, the serial numbers printed on the orders, and the amount of each order. The sum total of each sheet of paid orders must be stated in a summary attached to the list.

(b.) The list shall be numbered consecutively throughout the fiscal year beginning with number one on the 1st January, and ending with the last list despatched in the month of December.

(c.) One copy of each of the lists shall be transmitted on the part of British Guiana to the Administrator of Finance, Paramaribo, Surinam, and in like manner on the part of Surinam to the Post Office Department at Georgetown, Demerara.

(d.) Every paid order shall accompany the list on which it is entered and both lists and paid orders shall be forwarded under registered cover.

(e.) Each Department shall promptly acknowledge to the other the receipt of every list, and shall, as soon as possible after its receipt, give notice of any error which may be discovered therein.

(f.) If at any time the package containing the paid Money Orders transmitted by one Administration to the other be lost while in transit by mail, it is agreed that a certified copy of the lists shall, within a reasonable time, be accepted by the other Administration as a satisfactory Voucher and evidence of payment of the orders described therein which have been lost or destroyed.

ARTICLE 11.

A Post Office in either country which issues a Money Order payable in the other is required to transmit to the Post Office charged with its payment, by the first mail after the issue thereof, an Advice corresponding in number, date and amount to the Money Order of which it forms a part.

These Advices must be enclosed in envelopes specially provided for the purpose, and are to be carried free from any charge. The address shall include the district if payable in British Guiana.

ARTICLE 12.

The orders drawn by each country upon the other shall be subject as regards payment to the regulations which govern the payment of Money Orders in the country on which they are drawn.

ARTICLE 13.

Money Orders lost or destroyed will be replaced by duplicates which may be issued by the Administration of the country of payment from the particulars furnished in the original Advice. It is understood, however, that duplicate orders are not to be paid on the authority of corrected or second Advices until the consent of the issuing Administration has been obtained.

ARTICLE 14.

At the request of the paying country, a lost Advice will be replaced without delay by a duplicate which will be issued by the Head Office of the issuing country.

ARTICLE 15.

(a.) The Money Orders issued in pursuance of this Convention shall be valid until the expiration of twelve months from the last day of the month in which issued.

(b.) After the expiration of that period the Advices of unpaid orders, shall be returned to the Administration of the country of origin accompanied by a detailed statement.

ARTICLE 16.

Repayment of Money Orders to Remitters shall not be made until the Advices have been returned and an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained from the country of payment. In case of the loss of the original Advice, a certificate that the amount has not been paid will be sufficient.

ARTICLE 17.

Should it appear that Money Orders are used by mercantile men in Surinam or British Guiana for the transmission of large sums of money, or in case of a great advance in the rate of Exchange, or other circumstances creating abuses or acting injuriously to the postal revenue, either country shall be at liberty to increase the commission or suspend the issue of Money Orders for a time.

ARTICLE 18.

Section 1.—Within six weeks after the close of each fiscal quarter, two copies of an account shall be prepared, and transmitted by the Post Office Department of British Guiana to the Post Office Department of Surinam, exhibiting the balance found due on the exchange of Money Orders during the quarter, one copy of which, after proper verification and acceptance, shall be returned to the Post Office Department of British Guiana.

(a.) If the account shows a balance in favour of Surinam, the Post Office Department of British Guiana shall transmit a Bill of Exchange on Amsterdam, Holland, for the amount of such balance at the same time that it forwards the account.

(b.) If, on the other hand, the account shows a balance in favour of British Guiana the Surinam Department shall transmit a Bill of Exchange on London, England, for the amount immediately after the acceptance of the account.

Section 2.—If, pending the settlement of an account, one of the two Postal Administrations shall ascertain that it owes the other a balance exceeding £300, or Fl. 3,600, the indebted Administration shall promptly remit the approximate amount of such balance.

Section 3.—The expense attending the remittance of the balances shall invariably be borne by the debtor country.

ARTICLE 19.

If the Surinam Office should desire to send Money Orders to any of the colonies or countries with which the British Guiana Post Office has an exchange of Money Orders, it shall be at liberty to do so, provided that the following conditions are fulfilled :—

(a.) The Surinam Post Office must advise the amounts on a list addressed to the Postmaster General, Georgetown, who will re-advise them to the Exchange or other offices of the colonies or countries of payment.

(b.) The full name and address must be given of the Remitter and of the Payee; and in addition to the name of the office at which the order is payable, the name of the country must be clearly stated, as well as the State or county (if any).

(c.) The "Through" Orders, so received at British Guiana, will be treated as paid orders immediately on receipt, and their value charged against the Surinam Post Office. No allowance shall be made to British Guiana on the payment of such orders, but the British Guiana Office shall deduct from each order re-issued, for the intermediary service, a sum equal to one-half of that charged to the public of British Guiana on Money Orders drawn on the respective countries.

(d.) When the amount of a "Through" Order is repaid to the Remitter, the commission charged for the intermediary service shall not be refunded.

In like manner, orders may be sent by the British Guiana Post Office to any of the colonies or countries with which the Surinam Post Office has an exchange of Money Orders.

ARTICLE 20.

The present Convention shall take effect on the 1st October, 1910, and shall remain in force until the expiration of a period of one year after the date upon which one of the two contracting Administrations shall have notified the other of its intention to terminate it.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

LIMITED JURISDICTION.

THIS 21ST DAY OF OCTOBER, 1910.

PRITHIPALSING, plaintiff

versus

DARBUJAISING, defendant.

This action is brought to recover $225 payable to the plaintiff on a promissory note in his favour made by defendant on the 23rd December, 1908.

The defendant admits the making of the note but pleads payment on account thereof of $100 in January, 1909, and of $12 on or about 18th January, 1910, and sets up a counter-claim for the aggregate sum of $149 for rent payable by the plaintiff to the defendant in respect of one room in the defendants' range from November, 1906, to 30th June, 1910, and of a second room in the same range from 11th December, 1907, to 30th June, 1910, and for $35, the price of a tunk, a chandhar and a steel box alleged to have been sold to the plaintiff by the defendant. The burden of proving his plea and counter-claim lies on the defendant and neither of them is, in my opinion, established.

The fact that the defendant has sworn to a transaction between himself and the plaintiff as taking place in this colony in October, 1906, at which time the evidence of the Immigration Agent General shows the defendant was in India, prevents the defendant's evidence being relied on where uncorroborated. The plaintiff's evidence is in conflict with that of the defendant as to the alleged payments of $100 and $12, as to the existence of any obligation to pay rent, and as to the alleged sale to him of the tunk and chandhar. He admits purchase of the steel trunk but says that $10, the value of that, was taken into account in November 1906, when there was an adjustment of accounts between them and the amount owing by the defendant to him was arrived at. The plaintiff's evidence is corroborated by the facts (1) that the defendant (according to Harding's evidence) was in bad circumstances on the 23rd December, 1908, i.e., not more than one month before the alleged payment of $100 was made; (2) that (according to Walrond's evidence) no mention of the articles alleged to have been sold to the plaintiff, other than the steel trunk, was made when the accounts were gone into in 1906; (3) that rent was not then claimed by the defendant as payable to him by the plaintiff; (4) that no rent (as admitted by the defendant) has ever at any time been paid him by the plaintiff; (5) that at the time when the promissory note was made, the defendant (as the witness Harding states) did not say any moneys were owing him for rent or, as the price of articles sold to the plaintiff, although if such moneys were then owing the pre-existing debt of the defendant to the plaintiff would have been (except about $17) paid and satisfied and the promissory note might have been given for $117, or thereabouts instead of $225. In view of the evidence of the defendant's pecuniary position on the 23rd December, 1908, I am not satisfied by Indulsing's corroboratory evidence that $100 was paid by the defendant to the plaintiff in January, 1909, especially as Indulsing speaks of only one payment of $100 and the payment he speaks of may be the one of the same amount made (as both plaintiff and defendant admit) at the end of November, or the beginning of December, 1908, he only giving the wrong date. It may be added that the defendant in his letter of the 13th May, 1909, to the plaintiff says the plaintiff had promised to "wait on" him and he himself was "trying to settle" "as quick as possible," whereas if the sum of $100, had been paid in the previous January (as he now alleges) and the present counter-claim existed, there would have been no debt then owing by the defendant. It is urged that after the reckoning between the parties in 1906 the plaintiff became liable to pay for his occupation of first one and subsequently two rooms in the range on lot 36, Anira Street. The evidence is, in my opinion, insufficient to prove any express agreement for payment of rent, and in view of all the evidence the relation between the parties of landlord and tenant cannot, I think, be implied so as to render the plaintiff liable to pay compensation as for the use and occupation of the room or rooms. If, as urged by the defendant's counsel, the plaintiff originally entered into possession as having or claiming a share in the property this claim appears to have been regarded as subsisting till defendant should actually pay what was owing to the plaintiff, as is shown (among other evidence) by Harding's statement that when the note was made the defendant promised to pay the following year, and if he did not, then to make a division of the property.

The defendant having admitted the making of the note, and having failed to establish his plea and counter-claim (the burden of proving which lay on him) the Court dismisses the counter-claim and gives judgment for the plaintiff with costs.

Georgetown, British Guiana,

The following rule from the British Guiana Postal Guide, No. 22, Page 17, is published for the information of persons availing themselves of the book-post

rate of postage for the transmission of Christmas Cards:—

Conditions as to packing. "A book-packet may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened by means of gum, wafer, sealing-wax, postage stamp or otherwise) or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. The privilege of transmission at the low rate of postage applicable to book-post is forfeited by any packet the contents of which are in any way fastened into the cover, or the cover of which cannot from any cause be withdrawn without difficulty. A book-packet may, however, be tied at the ends with string or may be secured by paper fasteners."

It is recommended that the cards be placed in an envelope with the flaps turned in, or in wrappers with the ends open and tied with string, or fastened with an ordinary paper fastener. Upon Christmas Cards may be written the names of the sender and recipient and abstract expressions. Any writing which in character partakes of the nature of a letter renders the package chargeable as a letter.

Foreign. To Countries of the Postal Union, for every 2 ozs. or part thereof ... 1 cent.
Inland. Not exceeding 4 ozs. ... 1 cent.
 For each additional 4 ozs. ... 2 cents.

LABOUR SUPPLY COMMISSION.

THIS Commission has been appointed to enquire whether or not the existing labour supply of the colony is insufficient for the development of the resources of the colony and for the maintenance of established industries and, if it be insufficient, to suggest in what way the supply can best be augmented. Evidence will not be required in regard to the labour supply of sugar estates, except as to the extent to which it has been affected by the establishment of other industries as the terms and conditions under which East Indian labour is obtained by the sugar estates and the incidence of cost thereof do not come within the scope of the Commission.

Dear Sir,

TORONTO.

We think that the exhibits from Demerara looked very well and should do a lot of good. Woods, together with all other exhibits, with the exception of confectionery, have been handed to the Provincial Museum at Toronto. We allowed three samples of your sugar to go to the Guelph Agricultural College. We succeeded in getting the following awards at Toronto:—

Gold Medal—Permanent Exhibitions Committee for general exhibit.

Gold Medal and Diploma—Hon. B. Howell Jones, for sugar.

Silver Medal and Diploma—T. Earle, Esq., for cacao.

Silver Medal and Diploma—Colonial Chocolate and Confectionery Company, for confectionery.

Diploma—Messrs. Sproston, Ltd., for greenheart.

Diploma—The Consolidated Rubber and Balata Estates, Ltd., for balata.

ST. JOHN.

The St. John exhibit looked very well but space was limited. We have delivered to the Museum at St. John all samples of wood and are returning the balance of the exhibits, with the exception of the samples given away, to you, as we did not think it advisable to pass the balance of your exhibits to any of the Museums in that City.

Yours truly,

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 27TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1910.

THOMAS, appellant
versus

BRUNKER, (Inspector of Police), respondent.

This is an appeal from a conviction on a charge of unlawfully throwing away certain spirit in order to prevent seizure of the same.

The reasons for appeal, shortly stated, are; (1) that the decision is wholly unwarranted by the evidence, the evidence being insufficient to connect the appellant with the flask said to have contained the spirit in question, or with such spirit, or to show who drew the cork from the flask or threw away the spirit; (2) that illegal evidence, without which the conviction cannot be sustained, has been admitted, viz: (a) an alleged statement of the police constable Wingfield on the back of the search warrant as to the appellant's position and actions when the flask was found; (b) a paper attached to the Government Analyst's certificate and containing minutes of the Police Department and of the Government Analyst, and (c) the flask itself, which is not stated to have been formally tendered in evidence; (3) that the decision is erroneous in point of law: (a) the appellant not having committed an offence within sect. 94 (1) (c) of Ord. 1 of 1905; (b) the said enactment applying only to offences committed in, at or about a distillery, and (c) the police having illegally seized the flask, the search warrant referring to bush-rum only and the flask not being shown to have contained bush-rum.

The evidence of P. C. Wingfield shows that the appellant was not in his bedroom when Wingfield came, that he went into the bedroom with Wingfield, and on the latter turning to open a window he heard a sound as of the drawing of a cork from a bottle, and then saw the appellant leaning over the bed where he had not been previously and on pulling him off found the flask produced with the cork out and the contents were running on to the bed. In view of this testimony I am not prepared to say that there was no evidence on which the Magistrate could reasonably hold that the contents of the flask were purposely spilled by the appellant, even if it were established that Clarissa Bagot was in the bed at the time: but Bagot's statement that when she saw Wingfield in the bedroom she "watched the bed" seems to me if fairly interpreted to conflict with her husband's statement and to show she was not in the bed at the time. The first reason for appeal is therefore unsustainable.

It is not contested that the constable's statement on the back of the search warrant, and the minute paper attached to the Government Analyst's certificate were not legally admissible in evidence, but after excluding them, there is, I think, sufficient evidence to support the conviction. There is no formal statement on the Magistrate's notes that the flask was formally tendered in evidence, but the notes clearly show that it was treated by both parties as being put in evidence, and the objection that there was no formal tender cannot now be taken.

The decision in Warner v. Fenton (31 Mar., 1905) shows that even if the flask was illegally seized the search warrant being limited to bush-rum, still this would not prevent the appellant's being found guilty on the present charge.

The sole remaining question is whether sect. 94 (1) (c) of Ord. 1 of 1895, renders the removal or throwing away, &c., of spirits, &c., to prevent or impede search for or seizure of the same an offence only if the act is done in or about a distillery. The words of the enactment naturally construed are wide enough to cover a case like the present, the act is equally harmful wherever done, the legislature, therefore, may reasonably be presumed not to have intended to limit the provision in the way contended for by counsel, and the express limitation of the offences created by the two proceedings sub-clauses to acts connected with "the premises of a distiller" is an indication that similar words were omitted from this sub-section purposely in order that it might have a wider application. I therefore think the removal, throwing away, &c., of spirits, &c., to impede or prevent search for or seizure of them is an offence wherever the act is done.

The several reasons of appeal having failed the appeal is dismissed with costs.

HENRY A. BOVELL, C.J.

THIS 28TH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1910.

F. G. FERREIRA

versus

B. GAINFORT.

The appellant was charged by the respondent that he (not being an Aboriginal Indian) at Alexander Street, New Amsterdam, in the Berbice Judicial District, did keep a dog and did then and there fail without lawful excuse to take out a licence to keep the same.

The Magistrate found the defendant guilty.

The reasons of appeal are as follows:—(1) That the decision is erroneous in point of law: (a) Because the defendant was not on the evidence, the person by law required to take out a licence for the dog in question; (b) that the identity of the dog was proved as being owned by Gouveia; (c) because the defendant did not keep the dog in question within the meaning of the law.

The Magistrate, in his reasons for decision, states:— "It is clear from the evidence for the prosecution that a dog of a certain colour was found on defendant's premises and that defendant has not a licence to keep a dog, of that colour. The onus of proving that he is not the person who keeps the dog rests on defendant and I am not satisfied by his statement that he does not keep the dog. Nor am I satisfied by the witnesses Thompson, Brandon and Threlfall, that he is not the person who keeps the dog in question. They all speak of a dog which is not identified with the dog spoken of by the prosecution. I therefore deem defendant to be the person who keeps the dog in question."

The only evidence before the Magistrate for the prosecution was that of Smith, the revenue runner, and P. C. Mandeville. The former states that he saw a light brindle bull lying in the open verandah of defendant's shop and defendant told him the dog belonged to a shopman of his who had been discharged and had gone to Georgetown. P. C. Mandeville corroborated this witness.

The onus of proving that the dog in question was not the appellant's is on him. He gave evidence and called witnesses to that effect. It was, however, for the Magistrate to exercise his judgment upon the evidence and the Court cannot say that the inevitable conclusion from the evidence was that the presumption which the Ordinance establishes was rebutted, although had the Magistrate been of that opinion and so have found for the defendant I am by no means prepared to say such a finding would not have been warranted.

Conviction affirmed.

Appeal dismissed without costs.

versus

DAVID CUMMINGS.

This is an opposition to the transport of the northern half of lot 40, part of Plantation Leeds, or lot No. 50, situate on the Corentyne Coast of Berbice, colony of British Guiana.

The opposers claim that they and their predecessors in title for over a third of a century, have been in the lawful, undisturbed and uninterrupted possession of the said lot.

In their evidence both the opposers admitted that their alleged possession had been disturbed and interrupted, they having been turned off the said land nine years ago, i.e., before the period of 33½ years had elapsed by Margaret Davidson, the execution debtor, who still retains possession of the same.

The opposition is declared unjust, illegal and not well-founded and the claim dismissed with costs.

HOSSEINBACCUS.

This is an opposition to the sale of one undivided fourth of one undivided half of the upper half of lot 17, also known as Bachelor's Adventure, situate on the east bank of the Canje creek, in the county of Berbice, containing 500 acres more or less.

The plaintiffs claim to be owners of the land advertised for sale at execution claiming that the said land is included in and forms part of the undivided $\frac{1}{4}$ of an undivided $\frac{1}{2}$ of the upper half of lot 17, also known as Bachelor's Adventure, which said land was bequeathed to them by Catherine Patterson, deceased, by her will dated 12th January, 1898.

From the evidence it appears that one Harry Rose on 10th February, 1868, transported the said land save and except all such parcels or portions as had been sold or transported to other parties by former proprietors to Charles Matheson and Gilbert Patterson—Gilbert Patterson died on the 21st day of June, 1896, and by his last will dated the 13th February, 1896, he bequeathed to his wife Catherine Patterson his full portion of land at Bachelor's Adventure, out of which portion Adam Henry George, the plaintiff, (on behalf of his minor children) in this case was to have two beds. Catherine Patterson died on 29th March, 1898, and by her will dated 12th January, 1895, bequeathed to Adam Henry George and his children the full portion of her land at Bachelor's Adventure. It appears that Adam Henry George became insolvent and that the Official Receiver sold out his interest in the land to one Ramesaur—the remaining undivided portion of the land that belonged to the minors he leased out to one Hallimullah who leased it to one Henry Pile.

It is clear from the evidence that the judgment debtor Kosiath never owned any of the land in question, in his evidence he stated I lent Mark Henry some money to get the land surveyed but "I did not buy the land, the land was George's and "he (George) received the rents"; Mark Henry in his evidence states, "I never got any rent from the "land in question, George planted the land and "regularly let it out and took the rents."

Certain receipts were tendered showing that at one time moneys had been paid on account of the purchase of five beds of the land by Mark Henry to the Patterson's, but there is nothing to show which beds were to be purchased or that the purchase was completed. It is, however, clear that the judgment debtor has no interest in any part of the land whereas the plaintiffs have.

I, therefore, order that the defendant be restrained from selling at execution one undivided $\frac{1}{4}$ of one undivided $\frac{1}{2}$ of the upper half of lot 17, also known as Bachelor's Adventure, situate on the east bank of the Canje creek, and I declare the opposition entered just, legal and well founded.

I grant costs to the opposers.

LIONEL E. HAWFAYNE, acting J.

Post Office Notice.POSTAGE ON CHRISTMAS CARDS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Georgetown, British Guiana,
25th October, 1910.

The following rule from the British Guiana Postal Guide, No. 22, Page 17, is published for the information of persons availing themselves of the book-post rate of postage for the transmission of Christmas Cards:—

Conditions as to packing. "A book-packet may be "posted either without a cover (in which case it must "not be fastened by means of gum, wafer, sealing-wax, "postage stamp or otherwise) or in a cover entirely "open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents "being easily withdrawn for examination. The "privilege of transmission at the low rate of postage "applicable to book-post is forfeited by any packet "the contents of which are in any way fastened into "the cover, or the cover of which cannot from any "cause be withdrawn without difficulty. A book- "packet may, however, be tied at the ends with "string or may be secured by paper fasteners."

It is recommended that the cards be placed in an envelope with the flaps turned in, or in wrappers with the ends open and tied with string, or fastened with an ordinary paper fastener. Upon Christmas Cards may be written the names of the sender and recipient and abstract expressions. Any writing which in character partakes of the nature of a letter renders the package chargeable as a letter.

The rates of postage are as follows:—

Foreign. To Countries of the Postal Union, for every 2 ozs. or part thereof ... 1 cent.
Inland. Not exceeding 4 ozs. ... 1 cent.
For each additional 4 ozs. ... 2 cents.

A. W. SWAIN,

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

THIS 2ND DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1910.

EDMUNDS, appellant.

RICKFORD, respondent.

This is an appeal from a conviction on a charge "that the appellant 'being a servant and having entered into a contract to boil the triple eff on 'Plantation Teymouth Manor . . . for the perform- 'ance of which no specified time was agreed on, 'and having commenced the work, did on Monday, 'the 22nd d y of August, 1910, suspend h's labour on 'the same, contrary to law, Ord. 1 of 1853, section '11.'"

The reasons of appeal to which counsel's argu- ment has been restricted are: (1) that the appellant was a weekly servant and the case is not brought within sect. 11 of Ord. 1 of 1853, and (2) that the contract was terminated on Sunday, the 21st of August.

The Magistrate finds that the appellant had entered into a contract for the grinding period. It appears, however, from the respondent's evidence that such period is of uncertain duration varying in length in different years, and apparently the Magis- trate so regarded it. The evidence of the re- pondent and of the buildings overseer also shows that the appellant was paid weekly at a fixed rate per diem, the week running from each Saturday morning to the following Friday night. Such being the facts the contract must, in my opinion, be taken to be either in accordance with the general rule as to an inde- finite hiring at weekly wages (R. v. Dodderhill), 3 M. & S. 243, R. v. Lambeth, 4 M. & S. 315 a weekly hiring or at most, under section 8 of the Ordinance, a contract for one month certain, deter- minable as in that section mentioned. Whichever of these be the right construction, the contract can- not, in my opinion be governed by sect. 11 of the Ordinance. That section applies to task work or piece work (such, e.g., as a certain number of beds to be forked) paid for by the task or piece, irrespective of the time consumed in doing the work, and does not, I think, cover contracts to perform a series of jobs of the same kind, however many or few they may be or to do all work of the same kind which may have to be done, in consideration of a weekly wage.

This being so, the conviction of the appellant on the charge brought under section 11, cannot be sus- tained.

It is also open to much doubt in view of the evi- dence, that on Sunday the appellant told the buildings overseer that he had worked late two nights and had not received extra pay and this would not suit him, that the buildings overseer thought he did not intend to return and told the respondent all that had occurred, and that the respondent on the Sunday got another man to take on the work pre- viously done by the appellant,—whether the respon- dent, having thus treated the contract as being at an end, is not debarred from charging the appellant with violation of his contract by not resuming his work on the next day Monday. It is, however, un- necessary to finally decide this question, as the ap- peal must be allowed for the reasons already given.

The appeal is allowed with costs.

THE DISTRICTS GOVERNMENT BILL, 1910.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM.

The object of this Bill is to facilitate the administration of the outlying parts of the colony, where communication with the seat of Government is slow and difficult. It follows the lines upon which the North Western District has been successfully administered for many years under Ordinance 8 of 1890, and practically extends the provisions of that Ordinance to any part of the colony which the Governor-in-Council may declare under it.

As the Bill substantially reproduces the provisions of Ordinance 8 of 1890, it repeals this latter Ordinance, so as to have all the districts administered in the manner provided by it, under one Ordinance instead of having two Ordinances with exactly similar provisions, one for the North Western District, and another for the other districts to be hereafter created.

A BILL ENTITLED AN ORDINANCE TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE BETTER GOVERNMENT OF THE OUTLYING PARTS OF THE COLONY.

BE it enacted by the Governor of British Guiana, with the advice and consent of the Court of Policy thereof, as follows :—

Establishment of administrative district.

1.—(1.) The Governor-in-Council may, by proclamation, declare and establish in any part of the colony a district to be administered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

(2.) The Proclamation shall set forth the boundaries of the district.

(3.) The Governor may, from time to time, by Proclamation, extend, or reduce, or otherwise alter the limits of the district.

(4.) Every such Proclamation shall come into force on publication in the Gazette, or on such other date as may be specified therein.

Appointment of Commissioner for district.
Residence of Commissioner.

2. The Governor may from time to time appoint some fit and proper person to be the Commissioner in charge of the district.

3. The Commissioner shall reside at such place in the district as the Governor may from time to time direct.

General powers of the Commissioner.

4. Subject to the control and direction of the Governor, the Commissioner shall be charged with the general administration of the affairs of the district.

Special powers of the Commissioner

5.—(1.) The Governor may at any time and from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, appoint the Commissioner to be the deputy within the district of any head of a department of the public service or of any other public officer.

(2.) While any such appointment subsists the Commissioner shall have, in and in relation to the district, all the powers and may discharge all the duties by law vested in or devolving on such head of a department or public officer while such head of a department or public officer is not in the district, but subject to such instructions as the Governor may from time to time think fit to issue with respect to the relations of the Commissioner to such head of a department or public officer or with respect to any other matter arising under this section.

(3.) The Governor may at any time, by notice in the Gazette, cancel any appointment made under this section.

6. The Governor may at any time, by notice in the Gazette, appoint the Commissioner to act as a Stipendiary Magistrate within the district, and may at any time, by like notice, cancel any such appointment.

Power to appoint the Commissioner to act as Magistrate.

7. At the beginning of every financial year of the colony, the Commissioner shall transmit to the Governor a report on the general administration of the district for the preceding financial year, and the report shall be laid before the Court of Policy.

Annual report on the District.

8. In this Ordinance the word "District" means a district declared and established under this Ordinance.

Interpretation.

9. The North Western District Government Ordinance, 1890, is hereby repealed: Provided that the North Western District declared and established under the said Ordinance shall be deemed and the same is hereby declared to be a district under this Ordinance and all appointments made and things done under the first named Ordinance shall be taken and deemed to have been made and done under this Ordinance.

Repeal.

10. Any provisions of law which are inconsistent with the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Ordinance shall, so long as may be necessary, be and stand repealed.

Repeal of inconsistent enactments.

11. This Ordinance may be cited as the Districts Government Ordinance, 1910.

Short Title.

229.

8th November, 1910.

THE following Regulations, which it is proposed to introduce into the Court of Policy, are hereby published for general information.

By Command,

CHARLES T. COX,
Government Secretary.

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE BRITISH GUIANA SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. Every British Guiana Scholar during the period he holds a scholarship shall be under the charge and direction of the Director appointed by the Secretary of State to be Director of Colonial Students in the British Isles, and every scholar shall obey all directions he may receive from the Director.

2. No payments shall be made to any scholar by the Crown Agents except upon the authority of the Director.

POSTAGE ON CHRISTMAS CARDS.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Georgetown, British Guiana,
25th October, 1910.

The following rule from the British Guiana Postal Guide, No. 23, Page 17, is published for the information of persons availing themselves of the book-post rate of postage for the transmission of Christmas Cards:—

Conditions as to packing. "A book-packet may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened by means of gum, wafer, sealing-wax, postage stamp or otherwise) or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. The privilege of transmission at the low rate of postage applicable to book-post is forfeited by any packet the contents of which are in any way fastened into the cover, or the cover of which cannot from any cause be withdrawn without difficulty. A book-packet may, however, be tied at the ends with string or may be secured by paper fasteners."

It is recommended that the cards be placed in an envelope with the flaps turned in, or in wrappers with the ends open and tied with string, or fastened with an ordinary paper fastener. Upon Christmas Cards may be written the names of the sender and recipient and abstract expressions. Any writing which in character partakes of the nature of a letter renders the package chargeable as a letter.

The rates of postage are as follows:—

Foreign. To Countries of the Postal Union, for every 2 ozs. or part thereof ... 1 cent.
Inland. Not exceeding 4 ozs. ... 1 cent.
For each additional 4 ozs. ... 2 cents.

A. W. SWAIN,
Postmaster General.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

GENERAL JURISDICTION.

THIS 4TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1910.

DOWNER, appellant.

versus

McLEAN, respondent.

A preliminary objection to the hearing of this appeal has been taken, viz: that the appellant was not entitled to appeal, except by leave of the Judge by whom the original judgment was given, and that such leave has not been obtained.

O. xliii, R. 5 of the Rules of Court, 1900, provides that "no appeal shall lie from a judgment in any action where the amount claimed or the value of the property in respect of which the action is brought does not exceed $250 (whether the same be claimed by writ of summons or by counter-claim) except by leave of the judge by whom such judgment was given": or of the Appeal Court, in the circumstances provided for by Rule 7 of the same order, which does not apply in this case.

In the present case the plaintiff claimed certain pieces of land occupied by the defendant, and as consequential relief, damages for the use and occupation thereof by the defendant for the period during which he had been in possession. As the judgment appealed from, though sustaining the plaintiff's claim to the land, awarded no damages, we think in accordance with the principle laid down in Wieting et al v. Thomson, (Full Court, 1894) and in Allen v. Pratt, L.R. 13 Ap. Cas. 780, it must be held that the fact that the plaintiff claimed damages exceeding $250 does not entitle the defendant to appeal. The question therefore is whether the value of the property in respect of which the action was brought exceeds $250. There is nothing in the Rule to show that "value" means anything more than market value, or that any special value the property may possess for either of the parties is to be the test whether an appeal may without leave first obtained be brought, but even if such special value is the test, the property at stake in this case must we think be held as not against the appellant not to be worth more than $250, he having himself stated in evidence before the single Judge that it was not worth more than $1 a month, and the Judge by abstaining from awarding damages having in effect found that the occupation was of no value.

The respondent by notice served on the appellant under O. xliii, R. 21, has in effect entered a cross appeal. He cannot maintain as he has done: that the appellant's valuation of the property in dispute is correct, and at the same time contend that he himself is entitled to appeal. We think, therefore, his cross appeal cannot be sustained and under the circumstances both appeals must be dismissed without costs.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH
GUIANA.

GENERAL JURISDICTION.

THIS 5TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1910.

In re TAT*versus*MANSON HING, ex parte, TAT.

This is an application by the plaintiff in the action "John Tat v. William Manson Hing" for the certificate that the defendant's appeal from the judgment of this Court given on the 3rd December, 1909, has not been effectually prosecuted by the appellant; the effect of such certificate (if granted) being that the appeal will stand dismissed for non-prosecution as from the date of the certificate.

The application is made under clause 21 of the Order-in-Council of the 10th January, 1910. The words of that clause are:—"Where the appellant having obtained final leave to appeal fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the despatch of the Record to England, the respondent may, after giving the appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the appellant."

This rule expressly provides for cases of undue delay by an appellant, who has obtained final leave to appeal, i.e., whose right to appeal has been finally allowed by the Court, after he has fully complied with all the conditions subject to which leave to appeal was in the first instance granted. Having regard to the terms of this rule and to the other provisions of the Order-in-Council we think the rule applies exclusively to such cases, and that its application cannot be extended by agreement of the parties to cases where final leave to appeal has never been given.

No evidence of any order granting final leave to appeal was produced at the hearing of this application, and although on the question whether one had been obtained being asked by the Court, counsel for both parties stated it had, the Registrar reported that it appeared from the Record that no such order had been applied for or made. This being so the present application made under rule 21, cannot, in our opinion be sustained.

This application is, therefore dismissed, but under all the circumstances without costs and without prejudice in any way to such application (if any) as either party may be advised to make.

versus

Executors SALAMALAY, Deceased.

Under an order of this Court, dated 23rd May, 1910, made in the above action the defendants as executors filed their accounts on 18th June last, and the objections thereto filed in behalf of the plaintiff were heard on the 18th, 19th and 20th October.

Objection 1. Purchase of burial ground (par. 4). This amounting to $20.40 is withdrawn.

2. Tomb. (par. 4). On the evidence of the executrix herself this objection is allowed—$40.

3. Payment of $20 to Ramsammy (par. 5). Defendants produce no receipt and have failed to prove this payment. Objection therefore is allowed—$20.

4. Payment of $43 to Durassamy (par. 6). There is no receipt but the evidence, especially that of Lazarus Rejamthurm, supports that of the defendants and the objection is therefore disallowed.

5. $420 charged by executrix for the ward and lodging of plaintiff and her 6 children (par. 7). On the facts deposed to this objection is allowed. $420.

Surcharges.—

1. $100 (par. 8).

4. Jewelry mentioned in par. 8 of statement of claim (par. 11 of objections). These may be taken together. The onus of proving that this money and Jewelry had been handed to the executrix lies on the plaintiff who has not satisfied the Court on this point. It is, therefore disallowed.

2. Fishing boat and pin seine (par. 9). The Court considers that the evidence establishes that these belong to the estate of the deceased and finds the value of the boat to be $115, and that of the pin seine $160. Accounts therefore to be surcharged with $275 in respect of these items.

Surcharge 3. Profits arising from working of above (par. 11). It is agreed on the suggestion of this Court that the proceeds arising therefrom during the time that the plaintiff lived with the executrix shall not be claimed. The profits therefore from 29th November, 1909, to date at the rate of $3 per week, must be surcharged.

On these findings the accounts are referred to the Accountant of the Court under O. 29 r. 10, to be settled, and adjusted within 14 days.

IN INSOLVENCY No. 1 OF 1903.

THIS 7TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1910.

In re JOSE ANTONIO DE SOUZA, Insolvent.

Application for discharge. I am satisfied that the insolvent has failed to account satisfactorily for deficiency of assets to meet his liabilities, and I am of opinion he has also been guilty of fraud. He however has paid a dividend of 75 per cent.

I grant his discharge but suspend his discharge for a period of two years from this date, 7th November, 1910.

LIONEL E. HAWTAYNE, acting J.

FULL COURT (APPEAL COURT).

THIS 8TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1910.

In re DA SILVA*versus*DA SILVA, ex parte DA SILVA.

This is an application for leave to appeal from a decision of a single Judge reversing the decision of a Stipendiary Magistrate. The applicant applied to the Judge who pronounced that judgment for leave to appeal, but his application was refused, and the applicant now seeks the leave from this Court.

Sect. 38 of Ord. 13 of 1893 gives a right of appeal on questions of law "with leave of the Judge" who gave the judgment. Suitors are not of common right entitled to appeal from the judgment of a Court, but the right of appeal must be expressly conferred, and the conditions and limitations imposed by the statute conferring it must be strictly observed. Sect. 38 gives a right of appeal, only if leave of the Judge be obtained, and cannot in our opinion be held to give such right, not only if such leave is given, but also if such leave is not given but the leave of the Full Court is obtained. It is urged that sect. 44 which enacts that "in matters not herein provided for the practice and procedure of the Full Court in cases of appeal under this Ordinance shall be regulated by the Rules" renders O. xliii of the Rules of Court, 1900, applicable to such appeals, and by Rule 7 thereof, an application for leave refused by the single Judge may be renewed before the Full Court.

We think this argument is unsound. The right of appeal is provided for by sect. 38, hence it is not one of the matters which by section 44, are to be regulated by the Rules of Court. Nor do we think the words "practice and procedure" "in cases of appeal under this Ordinance" are wide enough to extend the right of appeal given by sect. 38, those words in our opinion referring only to the mode of proceeding in prosecuting the right of appeal as given by the Ordinance, in any such particular as is not specially provided for.

It may be added that in the cases of appeals from a Judge in the exercise of the limited jurisdiction, to which appeals R. 7 of O. xliii, specially relates, a right of appeal not only by leave of the Judge but also by leave of the Appeal Court is expressly given, while sect. 38 (as already said) does not so provide.

The application is, therefore, dismissed.

SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH GUIANA.

FULL COURT (APPEAL COURT.)

THIS 9TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1910.

LONDON, appellant,
versus

BARROW et al, respondent.

This is an appeal from a decision of Berkeley, J., quashing the conviction of the respondents on a charge of disorderly behaviour at Parade Street, a public way.

The disorderly behaviour occurred on a bridge connecting a private yard with the street, and the bridge according to the Magistrate's finding is private property. The learned Judge held that this bridge was not a "public way" as defined by section 2 of Ordinance 17 of 1893, the public having no legal right to use it. From this decision appeal is made, on the ground (shortly stated) that the public have a right to use as a public way all the space lying between the metalled part of a street and the paling which separates the lots on the farther side of the trench on either side thereof from such trench, and that, therefore, the private bridge in this case crossed land over which the public had a legal right of way, and any offence committed on it was committed on a public way, just as an offence on a cart passing over the highway would be committed on a public way.

The bridge in question is not, like the cart in the case suggested, an object in the occupation of one temporarily using a highway or a mere temporary obstruction to such highway only preventing others from using it at the same time, but is a more or less permanent structure. For the purposes of this case it must, we think, be taken to have been legally authorised, as provided by By-law 16 of the Town By-laws, and therefore, even if (which is not quite clear on the evidence) the whole bridge lies over a trench along which the public would otherwise have a right of way, it is clear that the lawful existence of this private bridge destroys or at any rate suspends such public right of way over the part of the trench above which it lies. The bridge itself being private cannot be said in any sense to be a way "lawfully used by the public" (sect. 2, Ord. 17 of 1893), and the public right of way over the land beneath it being destroyed or suspended the bridge cannot be held to be over a public way. We think, therefore, it was not in any sense a public way as defined by section 2.

The decision appealed from is, therefore, affirmed and the appeal dismissed with costs.

It is unnecessary in view of the foregoing to decide whether the Magistrate's decision must not in any event have been quashed, as being based (as appears from his reasons for his decision) mainly if not entirely on his own observations when he visited the spot.

HENRY A. BOVELL, C.J.
D. M. HUTSON, actg. J.

I concur.

BEAN, Plaintiff

versus

BRIGHTON et al, Defendants.

The plaintiff claims a declaration that an alleged will of the late Charles Augustus Bean, dated 28th August, 1908, is a forgery and of no effect, and that she is the sole heir ab intestato of the defendant, and also an order directing Diana Brighton, the first named defendant, who is under the alleged will sole executrix and also a beneficiary, to render an inventory of the estate and effects of the said C. A. Bean taken possession of by her at his death, and an account of her dealings with the same. The second defendant is the father and natural guardian of a minor, Joshua Ng Chung, to whom a large part of the deceased's property is given by the alleged will. That the plaintiff is a sister of the late C. A. Bean and his sole heir if he left no will is not strenuously contested and is we think, established by the evidence. The substantial question, therefore, for decision is whether the alleged will is genuine or not, and before considering the evidence on this point, it is necessary to determine on whom the burden of proof lies. On the 6th October, 1908, the alleged will was deposited in the Registrar's Office. In Rashdarry v. Butts (24th June, 1894) the Court held that deposit of a will in the Registrar's Office under the law of this colony was not equivalent to probate in common form under the English law. The Legislature, however, subsequently by sect. 2 of Ord. 3 of 1893, impliedly declared that such deposit had the same effect as such probate, and the Full Court in a later case (in re Cheeks, 31st Jan., 1902) held that such was its effect. In the present case, therefore, the disputed will is in the same position as one proved in England in common form. In Hinds v. Hinds (24th June, 1904) the Full Court held that when a defendant sets up a document as being a will, the onus of proving its due execution rests on him direct, the plaintiff has prima facie established his title as heir to the property of the deceased in the event of the disputed document not being a valid will. It is, however, urged that the present case differs from Hinds v. Hinds, as in that case, apparently, the document set up as a will had not been deposited, and that the deposit of an alleged will raises a presumption that it is valid, and thus the burden of proof is shifted to the party contesting its validity. In Rashdarry v. Butts it was held that the deposit of a will did not have the effect of shifting the burden of proof and we agree with that decision on the point now under consideration. The present proceedings are in substance similar to the one taken in England to obtain revocation of a probate in common form, and in such cases the onus of proving the will lies on the defendant. (Browne on Probate, p. 298, by Powles, 1st ed. footnote to Tomaline v. Smart, L. R. (1904) p. 144.) In England probate in common form is obtained just as deposit of a will is in this colony made, in the absence and frequently without the knowledge of parties interested; and although in some cases (as e. g., where there is the usual attestation clause at the foot of a will) probate in common form may be obtained without an affidavit as to the due execution of the document, while such affidavit is required here in all cases before a will is deposited, the rule as to the burden of proof is not affected by this, no distinction so far as we are aware having ever been made by the English Courts as to the burden of proof between such cases and cases where an affidavit as to the fact just mentioned has been made before probate in common form was obtained. In a case like the present, as soon as the plaintiff has proved his title ab intestato, the alleged will becomes the basis of the defendant's title, its validity must be proved by him. The fact that the plaintiff has had to begin so as to prove his title ab intestato does not exonerate the defendant who relies on an alleged will from proving its validity. The burden of proving the validity of the alleged will of C. A. Bean, therefore, lay on the defendants. C. A. Bean's capacity to make a will on 28th Aug. 1908, is, we think, proved and the alleged will if executed by him before his death was duly executed, but the question remains whether the document is genuine, in other words was it executed by Charles A. Bean at all? After careful consideration of all the evidence we think the document is genuine. The contents of the will throw no doubt on its authenticity some of the evidence, and especially the letter marked "G," shewing that C. A. Bean and his sister were not on good terms, and other evidence and in particular the letter marked "I" proving that C. A. Bean recognised that the first defendant had a very strong claim on him. Hence the fact that Bean's sister takes little and D. Brighton takes the greater part of Bean's property is what might have been anticipated. The only other beneficiary under the will is Joshua Ng Chung, who is the testator's godson. If the will was a forgery planned by D. Brighton it would be difficult to understand why she should have made the will bestow as it does a substantial part of the testator's property on Joshua Ng Chung, especially as the testator had at least one other godson to whom nothing is given. The evidence of G. Carbury and E. Trotz, the former of whom wrote the will and both of whom witnessed its execution, is to the effect that on the afternoon of the 28th August, 1908, the former having obtained a will form, wrote at C. A. Bean's dictation the will now under consideration, that it was read over to the testator and that he touching the pen made the two marks now on the document, one at the commencement of the testatum and the other at the end of the attestation clause, and they having signed as witnesses the testator gave the document to the first defendant. It appears from Li's evidence that he had seen the testator before noon on the same day and had asked him to make a will, and he had said he was not going to die. But it is not surprising that after this, his attention having been thus called to the matter, the deceased, who was then in a very serious state of health and who died the next morning, should make a will the same afternoon. The fact that a will form was obtained that afternoon by Carbury for C. A. Bean is also deposited to by the second defendant from whose shop it was obtained, and this corroborates Carbury's evidence. The second defendant has only an indirect interest in the matter and we see no reason for doubting his testimony. C. A. Bean's hands had been for some time affected by eczema, and J. Allen states that on the 17th August, i.e., eleven days before the will was made, he wrote the letter marked "E" by Bean's instructions, Bean being then unable to write at all, his hands being covered with eczema. This explains why the will was not written by C. A. Bean himself and was signed by him with a "X" only and not with his full name. The attesting witnesses say both marks on the instrument were made by the testator, and the circumstance that two were made and not one only though peculiar, is not sufficient to destroy the effect of the positive testimony in support of the will. Nor do we think D. Brighton's conduct in refusing (as we believe she did) to allow an examination of the will on the day of Bean's funeral, or her remarks to Mr. Doverill on his questioning her about the will though likely to arouse suspicion, show that the document was not genuine. The evidence of Elizabeth Burgess is, in our opinion, unreliable.

The will is declared valid and the action dismissed but without costs, the conduct of the defendant D. Brighton and the testator's state of health and the fact that the will was apparently written by an illiterate man and was not signed by the testator in his full name justifying suspicion and no sufficient ground being shown for rendering the plaintiff who is obtainer of an order pro Deo liable for costs.
